Preach My Gospel Among All Nations, My Son, Amen!

My son, I love you! Great changes are coming to this Earth. My people refuse to obey Me. They prefer their own things in life, not Me. I Am put on the back burner in their lives, so to speak. They have the preeminence, not Me like what used to be. The world has crept in with its things and has replaced Me in their lives. How will they survive all that is coming if I Am not forefront in their lives? I have been relegated to the back side, to the closet or attic in their lives. Great changes are coming to this Earth. How can they survive unless they hear from Me, spending many hours on their knees in prayer? They don't listen to Me. They won't listen to My prophets, unless they tell them the things they want to hear from them, the false prophets. They want not the truth, it is too uncomfortable in their lives. They want nothing to do with My wrath or judgment, the truth from God on His Throne, as spoken through My prophets. My true prophets are relegated to the dark side in their lives where they don't bother them with their truth from Me. My son, how will they survive if they don't listen to Me, the Son of God? They won't. My son, My people only want flesh, not truth and spirituality from Me, it is too uncomfortable. They only want good times from Me in the spiritual life, like being at the amusement park constantly. My people don't want Me, My son, only peace and prosperity. Truth they don't want, because it brings too much discomfort into their lives, too much angst about the coming judgment, and eternal life apart from Me. They don't want Me, only self, and what the flesh provides. Few are mature in Me, away from the cotton candy so to speak, and will do all My will, going into all the nations to preach My Gospel, not doing their own will. Those people I will use, not selfish Christians who only want good times and love from Me. Yes, it is true that I do provide those things, but I want mature believers who will do all My will, who will lay down their lives if I ask of them. Those I can use to go into all the nations. And why are they waiting? The time is now, the airport is open, tickets can be purchased to get on My jetliners and go overseas to serve Me, doing all things I ask, preaching the Gospel to all nations. Yet few go. My wrath is expended on those worthless Christians of Mine, who won't give up self, but prefer to stay at home where it is nice and non-threatening outside. Those I cannot use, because they have not given up self, but only love good times, not Me, My son. Those I cannot use, but I will put those worthless, wicked Christians of Mine into eternal Hell, even the Lake of Fire is waiting for them because they refuse to do My Father's will in preaching My Gospel among all nations. You see, My Father is good, wanting none to expire into Hell, wanting all men saved. He has called all men to be saved, but few do to accept My offer of eternal life. Those I will put into Hell, but they must hear the Gospel. That is dependent on you. Will you go, laying all down for Me, My son? Go into all My world where few have gone to preach My Gospel. Go and do My will. Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen, My son. Amen."
